I'd never had steamed oysters before and it was fun shucking oysters at the table. I also had a son on... WKU and loved all the memorabilia around the restaurant. We obviously went back the next few years before it closed. I was so happy to see that steamers reopened and my son was with us this trip. I couldn't wait to take the whole family. What a disappointment. Most of the memorabilia was gone and they didn't have steamed oysters to open at the table. I ordered the $38 lobster special which was very small and very fishy tasting. Our waitress took it out of the bill. My daughter ordered fried chicken which was the only good thing on the menu. Everyone else's meal was just ok. I would say that our waitress was very friendly and attentive. There are so many great places to eat in Hilton Head, but it's not one of them. More This restaurant is permanently closed.
